But Other Legal Agreements Can Be Made that Will Lessen Scandals.

"At the present time I do not think a divorce law uniform throughout the different States in any way possible, that is, so far as cause is concerned. But I do consider entirely practicable • unform agreement as to requirements of procedure, term of residence, &c. divorce scandals may be lessened and eventually made quite impossible." This is the statement of Lawyer Walter S. Logan, of this city, who has been appointed by Gov. Higgins senior of three Commissioners to serve at the convention to be held soon in Washington for the discussion of the question of unform divorce laws

How Standards Differ.

The lawyers appointed by the Gov ernor are those serving as Commissioners for the Promotion of Uniformity of Legislation in the United States, who meet for their annual convention at Narragansett Pier on Aug. 18. Mr. Logan is Vice-President of this Commis-

"With conditions see as they are we can never hope to establish uniformity in the matter of cause for di-vorce," Mr. Logan continued. "The standards of South Carolina, where a decree is given on no grounds whatsoever, can hardly be made to agree with the loose conditions of South Dakota. "But it is not at all improbable that the different States will before long be the different States will before long be willing to require the same terms of residence of persons seeking relief by law. The present requirements are excedingly diverse, ranging from one year in Dakota (only recently six months) to five in most States.

All But Cause. 'If one's matter of length of domicile were definitely determined, and other things—such as the method of serving papers, the nature of proof and the pro-cedure defined settled, we would have uniformity on divorce in everything but the cause for which the decree could be granted. be granted.

"This means that a separation will be legal in every State, not legal in some and illegal in others, as is now the ately complex that we can never hope to simplify it except by an amendment of the United States constitution, establishing national divorce legislation.

"Otherwise, States where only one cause is allowed, and those where desertion, drunkenness or failure to support are conceded to be just reasons, can hardly be brought into agreement with Dakota and Rhode Island; for the lixtle State that holds Newport and Narragansett is a veritable East Dakota.

BLOOMER WOMAN

WILL LECTURE

(Special to The Evening World.)
VINELAND, N. J., Aug. 4.—Miss
Susan B. Flower, the "bloomer woman." who cared so little for man that she worked her little farm alone for forty years and would have no man about. refuses to accept charity in her present strafts and insists that if she must receive aid she will do her best to compensate for the gift.

A subscription in her behalf was started by Frank Marsten, of Vineland, but the octogenarian spinster. who prefers bloomers to skirts, intervened and announced to the public who desired to help her:

"I am a quiet body, inclined to live my own life, directed by the power of thought. And thought is the most poof marriage and divorce can never be attained by law-making.

'On the other hand, we can prevent the crying evil of fraudulent divorce and divorce while you wait." tent force in the universe. 'As a man thinketh in his heart, so is his life.' "I do need financial help, but I want to compensate for it. If the people are sufficiently interested to listen to the "Do I believe in divorce? Yes, I suppose I defrequently. For instance, I see no reason why a drunken, worthless fellow should ruin the life of an innocent woman simply because he happens to be here hyspand."

thoughts evolving in my mind, and will open their parlors or a hall, I will, after a few weeks, meet them, and they can contribute according to the benefits received. This would be much more estceived. This would be much more sat isfactory to me.

The Commission for the Promotion of Unitormily of Legislation in the United States is formed of three leading lawyers delegated from each State. The convention has done especially valuable work in advocating universal forms of necotiable instruments. Prominent members of the commission are: Amasa M. Eaton, President of Providence; W. H. Slaake, Philadelphia; Francis B. James, Cincinnati; Senator Kittredge, of South Dakota.

WRECK ON THE D. & H.

WRECK ON THE D. & H. BINGHAMTON, Aug. 4.-- A Delaware and Hudson passenger train leaving here at 1.50 A. M. for Albany, was in a rear-end collision with a freight train near Sidney to-day. The locomotive went down a steep bank and Engineer Orrin, of Oneonta, was killed. The pas-sengers all escaped.

BIG HOTELS CROWD OUT SMALL As added evidence that the larger ho are gradually crowding out the smaller ones, the announcement was made to-day that the Criterion, where so many bonifaces have sunk their money, was to be made into a grocery store, Park & Tilford having signed lease taking the property. The building will be altered for the grocery firm. A gross rental of $500,000 for a term of ten years and six months is called for in the contract.
